

Pleas in the Supreme Court,

1st November 1804

James Winter et al,

vs

Peter Winsor

50

on investigating the state of defendants affairs, it appeared that he was in insolvent circumstances, that John Winter and Nicholas Gill had been recommended by the creditors of Winsor to be appointed Trustees, for the Estate, which was ordered.

Winsor stated that his son had not paid any money on account of the King's salary, and that the part he holds in law is only a gift, and that it was not ascertained what part was meant to be given.

Patrick Ryan

vs

Peter Ougien

n^o 3.

58

This was an action to recover the sum of eighteen Pounds.
It appeared that Patrick Ryan was dead, and the Court ordered the cause to stand over, until the 3rd inst, that Letters of administration might be obtained.

n^o 3,

59